ONLY LATEX BASED PAINT WILL BE ACCEPTED

NOTE: Limit of 15 gallons per vehicle will be accepted at collection events. For larger quantities please contact Emily London, ReStore Resource Manager, at emily@habitatlv.org or 610-776-7499 ext 302.

LATEX PAINT MUST MEET THESE REQUIREMENTS:

- MUST BE LATEX PAINT
- PAINT MUST BE IN ORIGINAL CONTAINERS
- PAINT MUST BE LIQUID
- PAINT MUST BE LESS THAN OR EQUAL TO 10 YEARS OLD
- MUST BE RECYCLABLE
  (REFER TO *"UNACCEPTABLE (NON-RECYCLABLE) LATEX PAINT" LIST)

WE DO NOT ACCEPT:

- OIL (ALKYD) OR SOLVENT-BASED PAINT
- STAINS OR POLYURETHANES
- PORCH OR FLOOR PAINTS
- WATER PROOFING PAINT e.g. DRYLOCK
- SPECIALTY PAINTS, e.g.:
  - INDUSTIRAL
  - MARINE
  - AUTOMOTIVE
  - TRAFFIC-MARKING
  - GLAZES/TEXTURES

Oil-based paint is Household Hazardous Waste (HHW) take to HHW event.

*UNACCEPTABLE (NON-RECYCLABLE) LATEX PAINT INCLUDES:

- PREVIOUSLY FROZEN
- CONTAINING BIOLOGICAL GROWTH
- PRESENCE OF PAINT SKIN
- HARDENED
- SIGNIFICANT CONTAINER CORROSION
- DEBRIS, SUCH AS DIRT, SAND, GRAVEL, SAWDUST, OR PAPER, ETC.

OPTIONS TO DISPOSE OF NON-RECYCLABLE LATEX PAINT:

1. Mix with cat litter, saw dust, shredded paper or commercial paint hardener in the container dispose with household trash. Place container, with lid removed, outside trash container or in a clear bag so hauler can see paint is solid. Empty and dry cans may be recyclable, check with your hauler or community.
2. Or, pour paint out onto newspaper in a thin layer, let paint dry (usually a day or two) and dispose of newspaper with household trash. Empty and dry cans may be recyclable, check with your hauler or community.
3. Or, remove lid, let paint dry out and dispose of container according to local regulations (could take several weeks or months). Place container, with lid removed, outside trash container or in a clear bag so hauler can see paint is solid.